SUBJECT: TURKMENISTAN ANNOUNCES TURKMEN CONSTRUCTION 2009
EXHIBITION, AUGUST 20-22

¶1. On July 1, 2009, Post received a letter from the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Turkmenistan announcing the international exhibition "Turkmen Construction 2009," scheduled for August 20-22, 2009 in Ashgabat. The Ministry of Construction, The Ministry of Construction Materials Industry, The "Turkmen Roads" State Concern, and The Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Turkmenistan will be organizers of the event. According to the organizers, the purpose of the exhibition is to demonstrate the results achieved in the construction sector in the past few years. The organizers will also arrange a conference called "Development of the Turkmen Construction Industry in the Great Revival Epoch."

¶2. The exhibition will include the following sections:

- construction technology (load-and-carry equipment, road construction machines, erection equipment, earthmoving equipment, road rollers, piling equipment, elevators, excavators, crushers);
- construction equipment and finishing tools (construction elevators, equipment for armature pretensioning, trestle scaffold)
- equipment for construction materials production (equipment for brickyards, equipment for rock materials dabbing, concrete batching plants, and cement factories)
- special equipment (concrete laying equipment, bridge measuring equipment)
- spare parts for construction equipment (engines, hydraulics, measuring equipment)

¶3. Applicants should contact Ms. Ayna Karayeva of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Turkmenistan at expo@online.tm for further information, details, and organizational support and to receive the necessary applications and contracts.

¶4. All U.S. agencies are invited to inform relevant organizations in the U.S. about this event.
